ABOUT ME

I am passionate about technology and software development. I consider myself as creative person, quick learner, team member and lover of multi-cultural works. I have experience about C#, .NET, SQL, DevExpress, HTML and CSS.

My career goal is being a professional backend developer about .NET CORE and SQL because I am good at functional thinking and working with new technologies. In addition to all, I am trying to improve my frontend skills on JavaScript language and Angular framework.
